

The American Economic Association 2024 Spring Award Recipients

John Bates Clark Medal

Philipp Strack
Yale University

One of the most prestigious and eagerly anticipated AEA awards, the John Bates Clark Medal is awarded annually each April (formerly biennially from 1947–2009) to that American economist under the age of forty who is judged to have made the most significant contribution to economic thought and knowledge.

Distinguished Fellows

The Distinguished Fellow award recognizes the lifetime research contributions of outstanding economists. Since 1965, past presidents of the AEA are recognized as Distinguished Fellows, and up to four additional individuals may be elected for the award in one calendar year.

Susan Athey
Stanford University

William A. Darity, Jr.
Duke University

Bronwyn H. Hall
University of California Berkeley

John Haltiwanger
University of Maryland

Margaret C. Simms
Urban Institute

Foreign Honorary Members

The Foreign Honorary Members award is presented to economists of distinction. Honorees are selected by the AEA Executive Committee based upon the recommendations from the Honors and Awards Committee.

Michihiro Kandori
University of Tokyo

Jean-Charles Rochet
Toulouse School of Economics

Hyun Song Shin
Bank for International Settlements

Silvana Tenreyro
London School of Economics

