

Disclosure Statement

Suresh de Mel

“The demand for, and consequences of, formalization among informal firms in Sri Lanka”

- 1) The sources of funding are shown in the opening note to the paper.
- 2) In the past three years, I have received grants from 3ie, the International Growth Centre, The Templeton Foundation, the Consortium on Financial Systems and Poverty at the University of Chicago, Innovations for Poverty Action and the World Bank. Any of these may be construed as having an interest in this research.
- 3) I have served as Research Consultant to Kandy Consulting Group (Pvt) Ltd in the implementation of this project.
- 4) Neither my wife nor child have any interests to disclose.
- 5) No other party had the right to review the manuscript