

Disclosure statement

The described research was supported by research grants from the Sustainability Science Program at Harvard University, the Weatherhead Center for International Affairs at Harvard University, and USAID. Funding from the European Union, ICRAF and Ecobank Malawi supported implementation costs specific to the program under study, but went to the partner organization, not to the author. Research was carried out while the author was supported by a Crump Fellowship.

The author has received significant financial support for other research from the Climate Knowledge Development Network, the World Bank and the International Growth Centre.

No party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

Institutional Review Board approval for the research was provided by Harvard University (F16307) and Tufts University (1109009).
