

Disclosure Statement to accompany AER-PP-2014 (“Return of the Solow Paradox? IT, Productivity, and Employment in U.S. Manufacturing”)

Author: Gordon Hanson

1. Sources of financial support for the research.

Hanson acknowledges funding from the National Science Foundation (grant SES-1227334).

2. Each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

a. Meketa Investment Group

b. Western Union

c. Compete America

d. Review of Economics and Statistics

e. Homeland Security Institute

f. Kiel Institute

g. Graduate Institute Geneva

3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A “relevant” organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

None.

4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

None.

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No party had the right to review the paper prior to circulation.