

VOLUNTEER SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Washington, D.C.

CBO provides the Congress with the objective, timely, and nonpartisan analyses needed for economic and budgetary decisions. Interns contribute to CBO's work in program areas such as budget and tax policy, health care, national defense, the environment, education, retirement and other income assistance, regulation, and public investment.

Summer internships are based on specific projects and typically last for 10 weeks.

Ideal candidates are pursuing graduate academic programs in the following fields:

- Economics
- Health policy
- Mathematics
- Engineering
- Public policy/administration
- Financial Management
- Statistics
- Physics

Information about the volunteer internship program and the application procedure is available on CBO's Web site, www.cbo.gov/employment/intern.cfm.

Students provide general information and submit their cover letter, résumé, contact information for references, unofficial transcripts and spring course information online. Students can apply at careers.cbo.gov/ext/search.asp.

Selections are based on academic achievement, the relevance of academic work to CBO's responsibilities, and work experience, and should be completed by early April 2012.

The deadline to apply for the 2012 Summer Internship Program is February 29, 2012.
