Paper: "Alcohol and Self-Control: A Field Experiment in India" (AER-2018-0458)

To Whom It May Concern:

Funding for this project was provided by the Weiss Family Fund for Research in Development Economics, the Lab for Economic Applications and Policy, the Warburg Funds, the Inequality and Social Policy Program, the Pershing Square Venture Fund for Research on the Foundations of Human Behavior, and an anonymous donor.

I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.

The data for this paper was collected during my time as a graduate student at Harvard University, with the approval of Harvard's Committee on the Use of Human Subjects (CUHS) and the Institutional Review Board at IFMR (the local partner in India).

Sincerely yours,
