

Notes

Sherwin Rosen, President of the American Economic Association, passed away on Saturday, March 17, 2001, after a short illness. The Association's bylaws stipulate that his duties devolve upon the President-elect, Robert E. Lucas, Jr.

2002 Nominating Committee of AEA. In accordance with Article IV, Section 2 of the Bylaws of the American Economic Association, President-elect Robert E. Lucas, Jr., has appointed a Nominating Committee for 2002 consisting of D. Gale Johnson, chair, Jagdish Bhagwati, Janice C. Eberly, Timothy J. Kehoe, Laurence J. Kotlikoff, Preston McAfee, Nancy L. Rose, and Mark W. Watson.

Attention of members is called to the part of the bylaw reading, "In addition to appointees chosen by the President-elect, the Committee shall include any other member of the Association nominated by petition including signatures and addresses of not less than two percent of the members of the Association, delivered to the Secretary before December 1. No member of the Association may validly petition for more than one nominee for the Committee. The names of the Committee shall be announced to the membership immediately following its appointment and the membership invited to suggest nominees for the various offices to the Committee."

Nominations for AEA Officers: 2002. The slate of nominees for Association officers is available on the AEA's Internet Home Page (<http://www.vanderbilt.edu/AEA>). If you do not have Internet access, you may request this information by e-mail to (aeainfo@vanderbilt.edu), by fax 615-343-7950 or mail to the American Economic Association, 2014 Broadway, Suite 305, Nashville, TN 37203.

The Fulbright Scholar Program is offering 126 lecturing/research awards in Economics for the 2002-2003 academic year. Awards for both faculty and professionals range from two months to an academic year. A new short-term grants program—the Fulbright Senior Specialists Program—offers 2-6 week grants. While foreign language skills are needed in some countries, most Fulbright lecturing assignments are in English. Application deadlines for 2002-2003 awards are: May 1, 2001 for Fulbright Distinguished Chair awards in Europe, Canada and Russia; August 1, 2001 for Fulbright traditional lecturing and research grants worldwide. Rolling deadline for Fulbright Senior Specialists Program. For information, visit our website at (www.cies.org) or contact: The Council for International Exchange of Scholars, 3007 Tilden St., NW – Suite 5-L, Washington, DC 20008; tel. 202-686-787.

Call for papers. Robert Morris College and Irwin/McGraw Hill Publishing Company announce a call for presentations and papers for the 13th Annual Teaching Economics: Instruction and Classroom Based Research, to be held February 21-23, 2002 at Robert Morris College, Moon Township, PA. The conference is designed to address the interests of teachers of college level economics. Participant presentations and an optional social outing will be included as complements to the scheduled speakers. The deadline for submissions is November 1, 2001. Information about the conference may be found at (www.robert-morris.edu).

Call for papers/abstracts. The Academy of Economics and Finance 29th Annual Meeting will be held in Pensacola Beach, Florida on February 13-16, 2002 at the Hampton Inn on the Beach. Papers from all areas of economics, finance, and related disciplines are welcome and encouraged. Accepted papers presented at the meeting may be published in the Academy of Economics and Finance Papers and Proceedings. In addition, the AEF sponsors a Teaching Training Program Workshop (TTP) and a Service Development Workshop (SDW), co-sponsored by the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta as part of the meeting. Participants, including those willing to organize sessions, be session moderators, or discussants, should complete and submit to the Program Chair a participation form and paper or session proposal prior to October 1, 2001. Participation forms and proposal guidelines are available from Richard Cebula, President-Elect and Program Chair at Economics Department, Armstrong Atlantic State University, Savannah, GA 31419, or at <cebulari@mail.armstrong.edu>.

Call for papers. The 66th Annual Meeting of the Midwest Economics Association will be held March 14-16, 2002 at The Westin Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. The MEA invites papers and organized sessions in all areas of economics—theoretical, quantitative, institutional, or policy oriented. If you would like to submit a paper for consideration, send two copies of a one-page abstract and the appropriate submission fee to Professor Rebecca Blank, President, Midwest Economics Association, PO Box 467, Cameron, MO 64429. Submissions may also be faxed to 816-632-7820 or sent electronically to <MEA@grinnell.edu>. Deadline is September 28, 2001. Submission fee for MEA members is $15 per paper. Membership dues are $10 for the 2001-02 year. Non-members must pay $30 per paper submission.

Call for papers for the 48th annual meeting of the North American Meetings of the Regional Science Association International to be held in Charleston, SC, Nov. 15-17, 2001. The RSAI invites papers and organized sessions in all areas of regional science. Please submit abstracts by e-mail to Frank Hefner, College of Charleston, <hefnerf@cofc.edu>, by Sept. 1, 2001. Visit the website at <www.NARSC.org> for further information.

Call for papers. The International Society for Quality-of-Life Studies (ISQOLS) will be holding its Fourth International Conference in Washington, DC, from November 29- December 1, 2001. ISQOLS is an interdisciplinary organization, concerned with the theoretical and empirical analysis of individual and societal well-being. Papers from economics are encouraged. Copies of the paper or abstract should be sent before June 1, 2001, to Andrew Clark <Andrew.Clark@univ-orleans.fr> or to the conference program co-chairs: Joe Sirgy <sirgy@vt.edu>, Don Rahtz <Don.Rahtz@business.wm.edu> or Josh Samli <Jsamli@gw.unf.edu>. Further information on the conference tracks and the conference location is available at the following website: <http://www.cob.vt.edu/market/isqols>.

Call for papers. The 38th Annual Meeting of the Missouri Valley Economic Association will be held in Memphis, Tennessee, February 28-March 2, 2002. The MVEA invites papers and organized sessions in all areas of economics. All papers presented at this conference may be submitted to referees for possible publication in the Journal of Economics. Paper proposals can be a finished product or a 500 word abstract that indicates JEL categories. All presenters will be used as chairs and/or discussants in their indicated areas of interest. Send proposals for papers, sessions, chairs and discussants to James Gale, MVEA President, School of Business and Economics, Michigan Technological University, 1400 Townsend Drive, Houghton MI 49931; tel. 906-487-2674; fax 906-487-1863; <jrgale@mtu.edu>. Deadline is October 1, 2001.

To Department Representatives and Executive Officers

When submitting information for inclusion in “Notes,” please observe the following guidelines: Calls for papers, notices of professional meetings, and other announcements of interest to economists should be submitted in one paragraph that contains all relevant information.

News of individual members should be labeled as to category: (1) deaths; (2) retirements; (3) foreign scholars visiting the U.S. or Canada; (4) promotions; (5) administrative appointments; (6) new appointments; (7) leaves for special appointments; (8) resignations; (9) miscellaneous. Give individual’s name, present place of employment, new title, new institution, and date on which change is to occur.

Deadlines for each issue are Spring (May) December 15; Summer (August), March 15; Fall (November), June 15; Winter (February), September 15.

Please send all information to the Journal of Economic Perspectives, Hubert H. Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs, University of Minnesota, 301 19th Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN 55455. Alternatively, send the information by e-mail to <jep@hh.umn.edu>. We reserve the right to edit material received. The Notes are also available at the website of the American Economic Association: <http://www.vanderbilt.edu/AEA>.