

Notes

The Annual Meeting of the American Economic Association will be held in Atlanta, GA, January 4–6, 2002. The Professional Placement Service interview tables will be located at the Hilton Atlanta. For more information, call ISM at (312) 793-4904 between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. CST or e-mail (JOconno@ides.state.il.us). There will be no on-site placement registration nor will there be an on-site message exchange center; all correspondence should take place over the Internet, including interview scheduling, prior to your arrival in Atlanta.

KiddieCorp will provide professional child care services for children 6 months–12 years, January 4–6, 2002. KiddieCorp teams are bonded, qualified child care specialists who are carefully selected and trained. KiddieCorp's child care program will be located at the Atlanta Marriott Marquis. It will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., January 4 and 5, and 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., January 6. The fee is $48.00 per morning shift and $44.00 per afternoon shift. More information and a registration form will be included in preregistration material for the AEA/ASSA meetings that will be mailed to U.S. and Canadian members in mid-September. If you do not receive the mailing, you may obtain a copy by writing to ASSA, 2014 Broadway, Suite 305, Nashville, TN 37203 or the AEA website at (www.vanderbilt.edu/AEA).

Preliminary Call for Papers or Sessions for the January 2003 American Economic Association. Members wishing to give papers, organize sessions, or make suggestions for the program for the meetings to be held in Washington, D.C., January 3–5, 2003, are invited to send their ideas to Professor Peter A. Diamond, American Economic Association, 2014 Broadway, Suite 305, Nashville, TN 37203. Please mark envelope "AEA Meetings 2003." To be considered, abstracts of papers should be submitted in duplicate, contain Journal of Economic Literature bibliographic codes, and be received by February 1, 2002. At least one author of each paper must be an AEA member. Proposals for complete sessions have a higher probability of inclusion than papers submitted individually. Econometrics studies or highly mathematical papers are not appropriate for sessions sponsored by the AEA; members wishing to present such papers may submit their proposals or abstracts to the Econometric Society. Please do not send a completed paper. The Association discourages multiple proposals from the same person (under no circumstances should more than two be submitted by the same proposer).

2001 Distinguished Fellows. The American Economic Association is pleased to announce that the Distinguished Fellows for 2001 are Rudiger W. Dornbush and Allan H. Meltzer.

Call for Artists. For approximately 20 years, the program cover for the Allied Science Associations' annual meetings has featured artwork of economists or their spouses—Will Baumol, Harry Johnson, Betsy Bailey, Lee Weiss, Jan Pen, Julie Ann Elston, Robert Fogel and Assar Lindbeck, to name a few. If you would like to see your artwork on a cover or have suggestions for future covers, please let us hear from you. Artwork can be any medium that can be reproduced or photographed, i.e., photographs, paintings, etchings, fiber art, sculpture, jewelry, pottery, etc. We DO NOT want the original art. When accepted, a color transparency, slide, or photograph (color or black and white) will be required by June prior to the meetings. Should you wish to submit the name of a colleague, we will be happy to contact him/her. As you might guess, there is no remuneration, just the honor having your work recognized. We look forward to receiving names and suggestions for future ASSA program covers. Send to ASSA Cover, American Eco-conomic Association, 2014 Broadway, Suite 305, Nashville, TN 37203.

William R. Waters Summer Research Grant.

The Association for Social Economics provides summer research support for young faculty members who have not yet been granted tenure and graduate students in Ph.D. programs who have not yet completed their dissertation. The research project should be related to topics in social economics. Deadline for applications is November 1 for summer of following year. Application form is available from ASE website at (<http://www.SocialEconomics.org>) or from the chairman of the selection committee: James P. Henderson, Valparaiso University, Valparaiso IN 46383.

Call for papers. The Association for Cultural Economic International (ACEI) invites the submission of papers for its 12th International Conference on Cultural Economics, to be held June 13–15, 2002, in Rotterdam, Netherlands, at Boymans Museum. Information will be available at (<http://www.fhk.eur.nl/evenementen/congressen.html>). Papers are welcome from all areas of the application of economics to the performing and visual arts, heritage, media economics, cultural industries, cultural policy and related areas. Contributions by managers of art institutions are also welcome. Suggestions by scholars interested in organizing a 3-paper session are welcome, provided that the papers do not come from the same research center, organization, or university. Please send one-page abstract (or one for each of the 3 papers in a session) to Victor Ginsburgh, President-Elect and Program Chair, European Center for Advanced Research in Economics, Université Libre de Bruxelles, C.P. 114, 50 avenue F. Roosevelt, 1050 Brussels, Belgium; e-mail: acei@ulb.ac.be. Deadline: January 31, 2002. Further information about ACEI is at acei@neu.edu or (<http://www.acei.neu.edu>).

Call for papers. The sixteenth annual conference of Phi Beta Delta International Scholars Honor Society will be held in Lafayette, LA, during the “Festival International de Louisiane,” April 25–27, 2002. Proposals should generally be in international education and international aspects of economics. General information about the society and its programs is available at the Phi Beta Delta website: (<http://www.phibetadelta.org>). Please send a 250-word abstract before November 1, 2001, to David E.R. Gay, Phi Beta Delta President-Elect, Economics, WCOB 402, Sam M. Walton College of Business, University of Arkansas, Fayetteville AR 72701-1201; e-mail: dgay@walton.uark.edu.

The National Social Science Association is now accepting proposals for the August 5–8, 2001, Summer Seminar to be held in San Diego, California. Technology sessions, papers, workshops and discussions in all social science disciplines will be featured. The NSSA’s Fall Development Conference will be held in Albuquerque, New Mexico, from October 17–19, 2001. The theme will be The Social Sciences in the Electronic Age in the 21st Century. This conference will meet the professional development requirements for many colleges and universities. A certificate of completion will be awarded. Please send proposals and 25-word abstract to NSSA, 2020 Hills Lake Dr., El Cajon CA 92020-1018; tel. 619-448-4709; fax 619-448-4709; e-mail: natsocsci@aol.com.

Call for papers. A special issue of The Review of Political Economy will be devoted to “Joan Robinson’s Intellectual Legacy.” The year 2003 will mark the centenary of the birth of Joan Robinson. Over the course of a career that spanned more than five decades, Robinson made numerous contributions to a wide range of fields, including the theory of imperfect competition, Keynesian economics, growth theory, capital theory, development economics, Marxian political economy and international trade. For our planned special issue, we invite articles on any aspect of Robinson’s intellectual legacy. Those interested in contributing to this special issue should submit 3 copies of a paper by June 30, 2002, to either John King, Department of Economics and Finance, La Trobe University, Bundoora, Victoria 3086, Australia; e-mail: j.king@latrobe.edu.au; or Gary Mongiovi, Economics and Finance, St. John’s University, Jamaica, NY 11439; e-mail: mongiiovig@stjohns.edu.

Call for papers. A special issue of Enterprise & Society, guest edited by William Lazonick, will be devoted to the topic “Business History and Economic Theory.” A central debate among historians and economists engaged in business history has been the relation between their research and economic theory. Yet there has been little debate among those holding different views of the relation between business history and economic theory in terms of: key issues concerning organization, evolution, and performance of business enterprises and relation to the social environments in which they operate; theoretical perspectives on business enterprise; appropriate empirical and theoretical methodologies; and the ways in which the relation between the disciplines of economics and history can best promote intellectual progress.

We invite submission of papers that address these issues. Please send submissions as e-mail file attachments to <William_Lazonick@uml.edu>. Deadline is March 31, 2002.

Call for articles. The Journal of Business and Public Affairs (JBPA), published annually by the College of Business and Public Affairs, Murray State University, is accepting submissions for publication consideration. Topics from any areas of business and public administration, accounting, economics, finance, telecommunications systems management, organizational communication and mass communications are welcome. All articles will be blind-refereed. Authors should follow the guidelines of The Chicago Manual of Style. Manuscripts should not exceed 15 pages in length (double spaced). Submit 3 copies of manuscript with $25 nonrefundable submission fee (make check payable to College of Business and Public Affairs) to: Dr. Seid Y. Hassan, Department of Economics and Finance, Murray State University, 308C Business Bldg, Murray, KY 42071.

Business and Economics Letters, a refereed letter journal sponsored by Feng Chia University, Taiwan, will launch its first issue in mid-2002. The journal prefers publication of concise and value-added short articles of no more than five printed pages. Both theoretical and empirical contributions in all fields of economics and business, self-contained constructive comments and pedagogical notes of high quality are welcomed, while surveys, book reviews, or policy debates of general nature are not suitable. Three copies of manuscripts should be sent to: The Editor, Business and Economics Letters, PO Box 25-600, Feng Chia University, Taichung 407, Taiwan. Inquiries to <bel@knight.fcu.edu.tw>.

The Institute for Women's Policy Research will hold its sixth women's policy conference on June 8-9, 2001, at the Capitol Hilton, Washington, D.C. The conference, cosponsored by the Women's Studies program of The George Washington University, will address a range of issues related to women's economic, political, health and social status. Visit (<http://www.iwpr.org>) for more information.

Call for papers. The First International Conference on Economics and Human Biology will be held from July 11-14, 2002, in Tübingen, Germany. Conference will explore the complex and symbiotic relationship between economic processes and the well-being of the human organism. Examples of relevant topics include: the impact of economic development and of government intervention programs on health outcomes; the effect of health on productivity; health as a component of human development; the conceptualization of health models in economic theory; the measurement of poverty, malnutrition, and psychological deprivation in developing countries; and anthropometric history. We expect to be able to subsidize travel expenses of most participants. Please submit abstracts (300 words) to either Jörg Baten at <Joerg.Baten@uni-tuebingen.de> or John Komlos at <jk@econhist.de>. For further information, please see <http://www.vwL.uni-muenchen.de/Ls_komlos/tuebingen/>.

Promotions

Christopher Taber, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, Northwestern University, September 1, 2001.

Administrative Appointments

Martin Eichenbaum, Chair, Department of Economics, Northwestern University, September 1, 2001.

Ronnie J. Phillips, Colorado State University, Chair of the Department, July 1, 2001.

New Appointments

Jeffrey P. Cohen, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Finance and Insurance, Barney School of Business, University of Hartford, Connecticut.

Joel Horowitz, University of Iowa; Professor, Economics, Northwestern University, July 1, 2001.

Chiaki Moriguchi, Harvard Business School; Assistant Professor, Economics, Northwestern University, September 1, 2001.

Eva Nagypal, Ph.D. student, Stanford; Assistant Professor, Economics, Northwestern University, September 1, 2001.

Wojciech Olszewski, Ph.D. student, Princeton University; Assistant Professor, Economics, Northwestern University, September 1, 2001.

Alejandro Pavan, Ph.D. student, MIT; Assistant Professor, Economics, Northwestern University, September 1, 2001.

Jeffrey E. Prisbrey, Accounting Policy Div., Common Carrier Bureau, FCC; Economist, Economic Regulatory Section, Antitrust Div., U.S. Department of Justice, Washington D.C., April 2001.

Paula Worthington, Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago; Lecturer, Economics, Northwestern University, January 1, 2001.

To Department Representatives and Executive Officers

When submitting information for inclusion in "Notes," please observe the following guidelines: Calls for papers, notices of professional meetings, and other announcements of interest to economists should be submitted in one paragraph that contains all relevant information.

News of individual members should be labeled as to category: (1) deaths; (2) retirements; (3) foreign scholars visiting the United States or Canada; (4) promotions; (5) administrative appointments; (6) new appointments; (7) leaves for special appointments; (8) resignations; (9) miscellaneous. Give individual's name, present place of employment, new title, new institution, and date on which change is to occur.

Deadlines for each issue are Spring (May), December 15; Summer (August), March 15; Fall (November), June 15; Winter (February), September 15.

Please send all information to the Journal of Economic Perspectives, Macalester College, 1600 Grand Avenue, Saint Paul, Minnesota, 55105. Alternatively, send the information by e-mail to jep@macalester.edu. We reserve the right to edit material received. The Notes are also available at the website of the American Economic Association: (<http://www.aeaweb.org/jep/notes>).