For the paper:

Private and Public Provision of Counseling to Job-Seekers: Evidence from a Large Controlled Experiment

By Luc Behaghel, Bruno Crépon and Marc Gurgand

Bruno Crepon declares that they have no relevant or material financial interest that relate to the research described in this paper.

Further, the experiment has not received an Institutional Review Board approval, because their institutions (Paris School of Economics and Crest) did not have an IRB. An IRB has been put in place since then at the J-PAL European office hosted by the Paris School of Economics, but it did not exist at that time.
