

Disclosure Statement for “Antitrust Leniency with Multi-Product Colluders”

Robert C. Marshall

1. Marshall’s work was funded in part by the Human Capital Foundation (<http://www.hcfoundation.ru/en/>) and Andrey Vavilov. Marshall received an academic salary from Penn State University that was associated with his position as Liberal Arts Research Professor of Economics.
2. Marshall has not received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like, from any interested parties.
3. Marshall has no paid or unpaid positions as an officer, director, or board member of any relevant non-profit organization or profit-making entity. Marshall is a partner in the economic consulting firm of Bates White, LLC; however, this entity is not “relevant” in the sense of having any policy positions, goals, or financial interests that relate to the article.
4. Marshall has no disclosures for any close relative or partner related to the issues in 1-3 above.
5. No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.