Dear Editors:

This is a disclosure statement for the manuscript, "Cash for Coolers: Evaluating a Large-Scale Appliance Replacement Program in Mexico" (by Lucas W. Davis, Alan Fuchs and Paul Gertler) that we are submitting to the AEJ:EP.

As stated in the acknowledgments, this research was supported in part under a research contract from the California Energy Commission to the Energy Institute at Haas. This was the only outside source of research support and I do not have any material financial relationships that relate to this research. The data used in the project were provided to the University of California Energy Institute (UCEI) pursuant to the terms and restrictions of a Non-Disclosure Agreement signed May 3, 2011 with Mexican Federal Electricity Commission (CFE). Neither UCEI nor the authors have received any financial compensation from the CFE.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Alan Fuchs', is located below the disclosure statement paragraph.
