

Disclosure Statement for Michael Greenstone

(1) Every submitted article should state sources of financial support for the particular research it describes. If none, that fact should be stated.

MIT Energy Initiative (Center for Environmental and Energy Policy Research), Sustainability Science Program Harvard

(2) Each author of a submitted article should identify each interested party from whom she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like. The disclosure requirement also includes in-kind support, such as providing access to data. If the support in question comes with a non-disclosure obligation, that fact should be stated, along with as much information as the obligation permits. If there are no such sources of funds, that fact should be stated explicitly. An "interested" party is any individual, group, or organization that has a financial, ideological, or political stake related to the article.

Greenstone did not receive any funding from an interested party at any point.

(3) Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A "relevant" organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

Greenstone does not have any positions with relevant organizations.

(4) The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

None of Greenstone's relatives or partners received any funding from an interested party at any point.

(5) Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.
