

Erik Brynjolfsson's Disclosure Statement:

1. Financial support for this work was provided in part by the MIT Initiative on the Digital Economy, an academic research center at MIT which I direct. Past or current sponsors of the MIT IDE include companies that might have an indirect financial interest in the research including Accenture, Google, Opera Solutions and other technology- or data- or consulting-oriented companies.
2. Until December, 2015, I was on the Board of Directors of Computer Sciences Corporation, a publicly-traded company that does computer consulting. I continue to own stock and/or options in that company.
3. I have given numerous talks and speeches over the past decade or more about IT, digitization, big data and related topics. In some cases, these talks were compensated by businesses or organizations or associations with an indirect financial interest in how data is changing decision making.
