Dear Editor,

In regards to the manuscript that Matthew Lewis, Frank Wolak and I have submitted for review entitled "High Frequency Evidence on the Demand for Gasoline", I would like to confirm that I have received no funding from nor am I affiliated with any interested parties that might have a financial, ideological, or political interest in the outcome of this research.

Sincerely,
