Re: Disclosure form for Eric M. Leeper for the manuscript entitled: “Clearing Up the Fiscal Multiplier Morass” joint with Nora Traum and Todd B. Walker.

Dear Editor,

This research has not received any financial support. I declare that I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in my paper “Clearing Up the Fiscal Multiplier Morass.” I am an external advisor to the Sveriges Riksbank (compensated) and serve on the Research Council of the Bundesbank (uncompensated) and co-editor of the European Economic Review (compensated). I have also visited central banks and policy institutions over the past few years, for which I was compensated.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Eric M. Leeper". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.
