Disclosure Statement

Dear Editors:

This is a disclosure statement for the manuscript “Product versus Process: Innovation Strategies of Multi-Product Firms”.

I have no conflicts of interest to disclose. I have no position at a relevant non-profit organization or profit-making entity. No relative/partner has a position at a relevant non-profit organization or profit-making entity.

For this project, we received financial support from the German Science Foundation (DFG Grant numbers SFB TR 15 and EC 216/7-1).

This paper uses firm-level data from IBGE - Brazilian Statistical Office. The data may be accessed upon submission of a research project to IBGE. The data are also made available through IPEA - Brazil's Institute for Applied Economic Research. There is no restriction concerning nationality to access the data. Further information to access the data is found in the attached README file. The programming files are available locally at IBGE along with the data used in the project. Researchers willing to replicate the results are welcome to contact the authors for more information.

Sincerely,

Michael Irlacher
