

Disclosure Statement for the article

Entertainment, Education and Attitudes Towards Domestic Violence

For the research described in the submitted manuscript I have received financial support from the following sources:

Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation (EFO 721-DEC00064, EFO 891-DEC00064)
World Bank (P144093 and i2i Fund GFR 17473)

The study was approved by the National Health Research Ethics Committee of Nigeria (Approval No. NHREC/01/01/2007-14/07/2014), by the Ethics Committee of Bocconi University (Declaration 10/10/2014) and by MIT Committee On the Use of Humans as Experimental Subjects (COUHES Protocols 1401006127 and 1503).

I have not received any financial support in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like from any interested party, where an “interested” party is any individual, group, or organization that has a financial, ideological, or political stake related to the article.

I do not hold and have not held any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A “relevant” organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

The above disclosures also apply to any close relative or partner of mine.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.
