

Disclosure Statement for “The Size Distribution of Firms and Industrial Water Pollution: A Quantitative Analysis of China,” final submission to the American Economic Journal: Macroeconomics

Beijing, September 24th, 2019

Dear Editors,

I am a current employee of the Chinese Academy of Environmental Planning (CAEP). CAEP is a research institution with independent legal status under the leadership of China Ministry of Ecology and Environment. For this paper, we have employed proprietary data housed at the China Ministry of Ecology and Environment. I thank the Ministry of Ecology and Environment for granting us access to the data. I acknowledge the financial support from the National Key R&D Program of China (2016YFC0207604).

In compliance with the requirement of the AEJ’s disclosure policy, I confirm that I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.

Sincerely,

Qi Ji
