

Inattention and switching costs as sources of inertia in Medicare Part D

Joachim Winter (University of Munich, Germany)

This research was funded by the Behavioral and Social Research program of the National Institute on Aging (grants P01AG05842-18, P01AG033559, R56AG026622-01A1, and RC4AG039036), with additional support from the E. Morris Cox Fund at the University of California, Berkeley, and from Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft through CRC TRR 190 (project 280092119).

I do not have any conflict of interest to declare.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'J. Winter', written in a cursive style.
