

September 17, 2021

- Disclosure Statement for “Reshaping Adolescents’ Gender Attitudes: Evidence from a School-Based Experiment in India”

I declare that I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper. While the second endline survey for this project received partial funding from my current employer, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, I was not involved with that funding decision.

IRB Disclosure

This project was granted IRB approval from Northwestern University under protocol number STU00081053 and by the Institute for Financial Management and Research (Chennai).

Diva Dhar

Doctoral candidate, Blavatnik School of Government
University of Oxford