

Disclosure Statement for Eric R. Eide

Eric Eide has nothing to disclose for this project, "Why Have College Completion Rates Increased?". He did not receive any funding for this project, and he has not received significant funding from any interested party in the past three years. The Institute of Education Sciences reviewed the results to check for disclosure compliance of small cells. Public Liberal Arts College reviewed the results to insure anonymity of the students and institution. IRB approval was obtained through BYU.