

Disclosure Statement – Robert Feenstra

I did not receive any financial support for the paper “Using the Retail distribution to Impute Expenditure Shares”. There are no interested parties from whom I have received financial support, and I have no position with any relevant organization. Calculations on US indexes are based on data from the Nielsen Company (US), LLC, and marketing databases provided by the Kelts Center for Marketing Data Center at the University of Chicago, Booth School of Business, which has the right to review the paper prior to its circulation. No human subjects were involved in this research.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'R Feenstra', with a stylized flourish at the end.
