

“Reference Dependence in the Housing Market” Disclosure Statement

Steffen Andersen

All parties from which Steffen Andersen has received significant financial considerations over the past three years are listed in his publicly available CV. As far as he is aware, none of these sources of financial considerations have any direct interest in the topic of this paper, meaning that they are not likely to come under the provided definition of “interested parties.”

All significant positions that Steffen Andersen holds are publicly available on his CV. His paid and unpaid affiliations do not place any formal restrictions on his published work.