Re: AEJ:EP Submission, “Efficiency and Incidence of Taxation with Free Entry and Love-of-Variety Preferences”

To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter in response to the American Economic Associations disclosure policy.

The paper titled “Efficiency and Incidence of Taxation with Free Entry and Love-of-Variety Preferences” was produced with financial support from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council. I have no conflict of interest to disclose. Neither I nor any close relative has received financial support from any individual, group or organization with a stake in the findings of this article. I am not an officer, director or board member of any organization with interests that relate to this article nor is any member of my immediate family. No party had the right to review the paper prior to circulation or submission.

Sincerely,

Jean-William Laliberté
