Re: Disclosure Statement

Dear AEA Papers & Proceedings Editorial Team:

Author's Disclosure Statement:

The author declares that he has no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper. The research was supported in part by the W.T. Grant Foundation. Johnson received IRB approval from UC-Berkeley to carry out this research project.

I am an economist and Chancellor's Professor in UC-Berkeley's Goldman School of Public Policy. This serves as the disclosure statement pertaining to my submitted manuscript entitled "Synergistic Impacts of Expansions in PreK Access & School Funding on Student Achievement: Evidence from California's Transitional Kindergarten Rollout" for publication consideration in The American Economic Association Papers & Proceedings 2024 issue.

I, Rucker Johnson, the sole author of this paper, declare that I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper. I have no conflicts of interest to disclose. I obtained IRB approval to conduct this research through UC-Berkeley and the California Policy Lab, in partnership with the California Department of Education.

If you would like any additional information, please let me know. My contact information is below.
