

I, Andria Smythe, would like to disclose that we received funding for our submission of “HBCU Enrollment and Longer-Term Outcomes” from Helios Education Foundation, the Russell Sage Foundation, and the Washington Center for Equitable Growth.

I would also like to disclose that I work at a Historically Black College and University, which is the subject of the research.

The research was approved by Georgia State University’s IRB (#H22612).

Sincerely,

Andria Smythe
