Unlocking Occupational Opportunity: The Labor Market Effects of DACA

By Aimee Chin*      Kalena E. Cortes+      Camila Morales§

DACA Eligibility and the Likelihood of Working in an Immigrant Job, Event Study

Note: Event study estimates of the effect of DACA eligibility of the likelihood of working in an immigrant job, measured as occupations where the share of non-citizen workers is in the top 25% of the distribution of non-citizen workers. The omitted baseline year is 2011, indicated by the blue line. Vertical dashes denote the 95 percent confidence intervals.
