Disclosure statement for: “Can Government Support for Innovation Create the Next Silicon Valley?”

I wish to acknowledge the National Science Foundation (grant number 1158794) for financial support.

I am the Director of the L. Charles Hilton Jr. Center for the Study of Economic Prosperity and Individual Opportunity at Florida State University, which has received donations/grants from the Charles Koch Foundation and DonorsTrust to support graduate study. I have received no monies directly from the Foundation for my research on the effects of R&D spending.

The author declares that he has no other relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this article.

IRB approval was not needed nor sought for this article.
