

Disclosure statement for:

Dismantling the Legacy of Caste: Affirmative Action in Indian Higher Education

(1) Financial support provided for the research.

A grant from the Spencer Foundation has been obtained by Carnegie Mellon University to support data collection. No financial support is provided to the authors from this grant. Support for travel to the undersigned to facilitate data collection was provided by Carnegie Mellon University from funds allocated by the University to support research of Prof. Dennis Epple.

(2) Financial or in-kind support from interested parties.

None

(3) Unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A relevant organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

None

(4) Unpaid positions of close relative or partner as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities.

None

(5) Does another party have the right to review the paper prior to its circulation?

No

(6) Can the data used in the paper be provided to other researchers?

No, the data are obtained subject to an agreement of nondisclosure. Other researchers would need to obtain the data from the relevant institutions, as we have done.

Signed name: _____

 JUNE 11, 2014

Printed name: SURENDRAKUMAR BAGDE