

Robert Shimer received material compensation from the Goldman Sachs Global Markets Institute and the Federal Reserve Banks of Atlanta, Chicago, and New York during the three years prior to the publication of "Markets with Multidimensional Private Information."