

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT – JOACIM TÅG

- I have no consulting relationships to disclose and no party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.
- My employer The Research Institute of Industrial Economics (IFN) is a private, non-profit research institute with research funding from various public and private sources. The Federation of Swedish Industry and the Swedish Employers' Confederation founded the Institute in 1939 in order to encourage research on economic and social issues of significance for industrial development. The Confederation of Swedish Enterprise is the Institute's principal, and the Institute is non-partisan and independent. Professional integrity and objectivity characterize all research and analysis conducted at the Institute. No research funding, neither personal nor institutional, is accepted for projects with predetermined results or specific policy stances.
- The paper was written with financial support from the Marianne and Marcus Wallenberg Foundation.
