1990 Nominating Committee of AEA

In accordance with Article IV, Section 2 of the Bylaws of the American Economic Association, President-elect Thomas C. Schelling has appointed a Nominating Committee for 1991 consisting of Robert Eisner, Chair; Barbara R. Bergmann, Michael D. Intriligator, Lawrence B. Krause, Donald M. McCloskey, Alicia H. Munnell, and John B. Shoven.

Attention of members is called to the part of the bylaw reading, "In addition to appointees chosen by the President-elect, the Committee shall include any other member of the Association nominated by petition including signatures and addresses of not less than 2 percent of the members of the Association, delivered to the Secretary before December 1. No member of the Association may validly petition for more than one nominee for the Committee. The names of the Committee shall be announced to the membership immediately following its appointment and the membership invited to suggest nominees for the various offices to the Committee."

Nominations for AEA Officers: 1990

The Electoral College on March 23, 1990 chose William Vickrey as nominee for President-elect of the American Economic Association in the balloting to be held in the autumn of 1990. Other nominees (chosen by the 1990 Nominating Committee) are: Vice-President (two to be elected) Claudia D. Goldin, Robert E. Hall, Daniel McFadden and Amartya K. Sen; for members of the Executive Committee (two to be elected) Michael J. Piore, T. N Srinivasan, Martin L. Weitzman and Gavin Wright.

In accordance with Article IV, Section 2 of the Bylaws of the American Economic Association, additional candidates may be nominated "by petition, delivered to the Secretary by August 1, including signatures and addresses of not less than 6 percent of the membership of the Association for the office of President-elect and not less than 4 percent for each of the other offices. No member of the Association may validly petition for more than one nominee for the Executive Committee, one nominee for Vice-President and one nominee for President-elect." For the purpose of circulation petitions, address labels will be made available by the Secretary at cost.
