

2016 CSWEP Peer Mentoring and Networking Breakfast for Mid-Career Economists
Monday, January 4, 2016, 8:00-10:00AM
Hilton Union Square, Franciscan A&B

Agenda

8:00-8:10AM: Welcome/Breakfast

8:10-8:30AM: Short Talks

Evaluating and Planning for Career Transitions
Cecilia Conrad, Vice President, MacArthur Fellows Program

Being Efficient and Effective in Administrative Duties
Laura Argys, Professor and Associate Dean, University of Colorado Denver

Time Management under Rising Responsibility
Donna Ginther, Professor of Economics and Director, Center for Science Technology & Economic Policy, University of Kansas

Table-Level Discussion

Facilitators: Please moderate the discussion and manage time for the following two activities:

8:30-8:50AM: Introductions

Participants, including facilitators, each spend 2 minutes introducing themselves (professional position, career path, research area)

8:50-9:30AM: Individual Questions

Each participant, excluding facilitators, has 8-10 minutes to ask questions and receive feedback from the table.

Full Group Reconvenes

9:30-9:50AM: Open Q&A

This is an opportunity for participants to take questions or points that came up at their table and ask/share them with the wider group for broader feedback.

9:50-10:00AM: Conclude/Event Survey