

6 December 2023

Disclosure Statement: “Urban public works in Spatial Equilibrium: Experimental evidence from Ethiopia”

To whomever it may concern

- 1- Every submitted article should state the sources of financial support for the particular research it describes. If none, that fact should be stated.

None

- 2- Each author of a submitted article should identify each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like. The disclosure requirement also includes in-kind support, such as providing access to data. If the support in question comes with a non-disclosure obligation, that fact should be stated, along with as much information as the obligation permits. If there are no such sources of funds, that fact should be stated explicitly. An “interested” party is any individual, group, or organization that has a financial, ideological, or political stake related to the article.

I received financial support from no interested party

- 3- Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A “relevant” organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

None

- 4- The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

Not applicable

- 5- Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

None required

Clement Imbert
Associate Professor
University of Warwick
c.imbert@warwick.ac.uk