

GOLDIN Disclosure Statement:

1. Sources of financial support for the research:

The Alfred P. Sloan Foundation generously supported the Undergraduate Women in Economics Challenge through grant no. G-2014-14504.

2. Each author of a submitted article should identify each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

I have been the Program Director of the Development of the American Economy Program at the NBER.

3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities.

I am a member of various editorial boards (QJE, JEP, Milken Review). These are not paid positions.

4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

My husband is a board member of the Russell Sage Foundation and MDRC.

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

Institutional Review Board (IRB) Approval:

Harvard University Committee on the Use of Human Subjects, 15-2030. The UWE Challenge does not need IRB approval because the information gathered is at the institutional level. Treatment school representatives could need IRB approval if they do research projects with individual data. In addition, the UWE RCT has been registered in the American Economic Association Registry for randomized control trials under Trial ID no. AEARCTR-0000686.