Dear Sir or Madam:

I am one of the authors of the article, "Advance Market Commitments: Insights from Theory and Experience." I was a member of the Economics Expert Group that helped design the pilot Advance Market Commitment (AMC) for pneumococcus vaccine. I was not paid for that work. I have worked as an unpaid advisor on several other AMC projects in both official and unofficial capacities. I received modest honoraria for two related projects: I performed a proposal review for an AMC for hoof and mouth disease funded by AgResults and presented a conference paper on funding mechanisms for emergency medical countermeasures funded by the Nuclear Threat Initiative.

Sincerely yours,

Christopher Snyder
