

American Economic Association
Universal Academic Questionnaire for Academic Year (AY) 2021-22
This form is also available to be completed online at <http://www.aeaweb.org/UAQ/2021>

I. General Information

1. Name of Institution: _____
 Department: _____
 Mailing Address: _____
 City/State/Zip: _____
 Phone: _____ 2. Public Private
3. Chairperson: _____
 Email: _____
 Admin Asst.: _____
 Email: _____
 Grad. Chairperson: _____ (if applicable)
 Email: _____ (if applicable)
4. Highest degree in economics which can be earned in your department:
 BA/BS MA/MS Ph.D. Other _____
5. The department is located in:
 a school of liberal arts or arts and sciences a school of business or management
 other _____

6. Number and level of degrees in economics awarded by your department:

	2018-19				2019-20				2020-21
	July 1, 2018--June 30, 2019				July 1, 2019--June 30, 2020				July 1, 2020--June 30, 2021
Degree	Male	Female	Other	Total	Male	Female	Other	Total	Male	Female	Other	Total
Bachelors*
Masters
Ph.D.

*For bachelor's degrees to count as an Economics degree in other fields such as Business, Mathematics, or Social Sciences (with Economics as a concentration), the required courses must include: Introductory Economics (either a one semester course or two semester sequence with micro and macro), Economic Statistics, Intermediate Microeconomics, and Intermediate Macroeconomics.

II. Faculty Information

7. Number of economists^a employed for AY 2021-22 by Rank, Sex, and Employment Status:

Sex & Employment Status		Tenured or Tenure Track					Nontenure Track ^c
		Prof.	Assoc. Prof.	Asst. Prof.	Instructor	Other
Full-time: ^b	Male
	Female
	Other

Sex & Employment Status		Prof.	Assoc. Prof.	Asst. Prof.	Instructor	Other	Nontenure Track ^c
Part-time:	Male
	Female
	Other

^aInclude faculty members on leave during AY 2021-22 but exclude visiting appointments.

^bFull-time means full-time in the institution. Include joint appointments if the appointment is full-time in the institution and the appointee is an economist.

^cEconomists who do not have full faculty status or are not tenured or tenure-track, and who are not currently your own graduate students. Examples are instructors, lecturers, research and adjunct positions.

8. Number of economists employed for AY 2021-22 by Rank, Ethnicity, and Employment Status:

Ethnicity* & Employment Status	Tenured or Tenure Track					Nontenure Track
	Prof.	Assoc. Prof.	Asst. Prof.	Instructor	Other
Full-time: Black (FT)
Hispanic (FT)
Asian (FT)
Native American (FT)
Other Minorities (FT)
Part-time: Black (PT)
Hispanic (PT)
Asian (PT)
Native American (PT)
Other Minorities (PT)

*U.S. citizen or permanent resident only.

Do not double-count an individual. Blanks are treated as zeros.

9. Salary^a of full-time^b economists for AY 2021-22 by rank.

Because of COVID-19 some colleges and universities have instituted temporary salary reductions and/or reduced hours or furloughs. Please complete the compensation information in the UAQ with the relevant permanent information before or after the temporary adjustments.

	Tenured or Tenure Track, by Rank					Nontenure Track
	Prof.	Assoc. Prof.	Asst. Prof.	Instructor	Other
Mean Salary (US$)
Number of economists ^c

^aSalary (excluding fringe benefits) on an academic year basis. For those on a calendar year basis, multiply by .81818 before tabulation. Salary information should include salaries of members on leave but not that of visitors.

^bFull-time means full-time in the institution. Include joint appointments if it is full-time in the institution and the appointee is an economist.

^cTo avoid disclosing an individual's salary, do not complete the column if an entry in this row is 1.

10. Number and salary information concerning the new (first full-time academic appointment) junior faculty hired for the academic year 2021-22 (9-10 month basis). Exclude visiting appointments:

Rank		US$ Salary	Number	Other Compensation ^b	Teaching Load (courses PER YEAR)
Instructor:	With Ph.D.
	ABD ^a
Assistant Professor:	With Ph.D.
	ABD ^a

^aAll but dissertation.

^bInclude aggregate value of guaranteed summer compensation (over all years) and other compensation of cash value to employee, such as a "signing bonus." Do not include fringe benefits, moving expenses, computer that remains property of the institution or other similar items.

STOP HERE IF YOU DO NOT HAVE A GRADUATE PROGRAM.

Return to: JOHN J. SIEGFRIED
American Economic Association
2014 Broadway, Suite 305
Nashville, TN 37203-2418

III. Graduate Program Questions

(This section to be completed only by institutions having graduate programs.)

Ph.D. Student Information

11. Number of applications, admission offers, acceptances, and new Ph.D. students enrolled for AY 2020-21 and 2021-22:

Number of	AY 2020-21
	Male	Female	Other	Total
Applications for admission
Offers of admission
Acceptances
NEW Ph.D. students enrolled
AY 2021-22
Applications for admission
Offers of admission
Acceptances
NEW Ph.D. students enrolled

12. How many graduate students had full responsibility for teaching at least one course during summer 2021 and academic year 2021-22? _____

Master's Student Information

13. Number of applications, admission offers, acceptances, and new Master's students enrolled for AY 2020-21 and 2021-22:

Number of	AY 2020-21
	Male	Female	Other	Total
Applications for admission
Offers of admission
Acceptances
NEW Masters students enrolled
AY 2021-22
Applications for admission
Offers of admission
Acceptances
NEW Masters students enrolled

(Please do not double count students in Ph.D. and Masters categories.)

Return to: JOHN J. SIEGFRIED
American Economic Association
2014 Broadway, Suite 305
Nashville, TN 37203-2418