Manuscript Title:

Please check ONE of the following:

In accordance with the AEA Data and Code Availability Policy, I will upload all the data and programs used in my research to the AEA Data and Code Repository.

My paper uses data that is subject to access restriction and I am therefore unable to deposit the files in an openly accessible data repository. I shall, therefore, provide detailed information on how, where, and under what conditions an independent researcher can access the data. This information is briefly summarized below and shall be part of the data and code README. All programs shall still be provided.

No data are used in my paper.
