The Committee on the Status of Minority Groups in the Economics Profession (CSMGEP) was established by the American Economic Association (AEA) in 1968 to increase the representation of minorities in the economics profession, primarily by broadening opportunities for the training of underrepresented minorities.

CSMGEP Programs and Activities

• Summer Economics Fellows Program
• Mentoring Program
• Summer Training Program
• Profiles of Economists and Job Candidates
• Research and Career Resources

www.csmgep.org